

$23,000 IN CURRENCY
STOLEN FROM MAIIS*Pouch Falling From Wagon Rifled in Street.

Five packages of currency of small denominations, amounting to $23,000, which the Federal Reserve Bank had sent by registered mail to out of town correspondents, were stolen from a mail pouch that fell off a mail wagon early Thursday morning while en route from the Grand Central station to the West Shore Railroad terminal in Weehawken, N. J. The pouch was found lying in the street two hours later. The Post Office seal had been broken. Only the five packages of money were missing.

O. M. Schaeffer, Post Office Inspector, said yesterday afternoon that so far as the Post Office was concerned it was surely an accident. He absolved the mail wagon driver and a clerk who was to have accompanied him to the Weehawken railroad terminal, from any blame.

The mail wagon left the Grand Central station a few minutes after 2 o'clock Thursday morning. The wagon was well filled with pouches. When the wagon pulled on to a ferry boat at the foot of West Forty-second street, twenty minutes later a ferry employee called the driver's attention to the fact that the rear gate of his wagon was open. The driver and clerk hurriedly examined the pouches and found one was missing.

Leaving the driver to continue the trip alone, the clerk retraced the course taken. Not finding the pouch, he notified the officials at the branch office and then ran back over the route again, but to no avail. Two hours later the driver of another mail wagon picked up the pouch a few blocks north of the street through which the first wagon had passed.

THE C-10 HAS HARD VOYAGE.

Arrives at Rockaway, Making 300 Miles in Six Hours.

The naval blimp C-10, commanded by Lieut. A. W. Evans, reached Rockaway naval air station yesterday at 11:30 A. M., after covering the 300 miles from Chatham, Mass., in six hours. The trip was not enjoyed by the seven members of the crew, for they encountered high winds and "bumps" on the trip, and also ran into rain and fog. Despite this she arrived in good condition, and will take part in manoeuvres of the Atlantic fleet off this part of the coast.

Maytime and Playtime

are nearly---but not quite---synonymous terms

For the grown-ups, Maytime means many things that are not play; house-furbishing, for example, and general preparation for the Summer days soon to come. For the growing-ups, on the other hand, Maytime means a joyous looking-forward to a glorious vacation, with its merry-makings in shady woods and daisy-starred fields, and its care-free cavortings along the shell-strewn shore.

But, for grown-ups and growing-ups alike, Maytime—heralding Summertime—brings many insistent needs which B. Altman & Co. are abundantly able to supply. Just the right clothes for every occasion; the right travel things, the right stationery, the right toilet articles—in brief, the right everything.
